HOUSE PASSES DISTRICT ATTOR-NEY BILL-SOCIALISTS FIGHT. ING POLL TAX.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Feb. 24.-By a margin of one vote the bill by Mr. Riddle creating the office of District Attorney and abolishing the office of county attorney was adopted by the house Fifty votes were required for passage and the affirmative side received fifty-one, with thirty-eight negative votes registered. As it came from a special committee to which it was and revived on a motion to reconsider.

THE LAW SAYS:

We guarantee your money against loss if deposited in the FARMERS STATE BANK of Ada, because the Guaranty Law is backing that bank."

the bill fixes the salary of the district Attorny at $4,000 and allows one or more assistant district attorneys in the counties elected by vote of the people of the county. The line-up for and against the measure on final passage was little changed from that prevailing during other considerations The chief objections brought forward today were that under the provision of allowing Assistant District Attorneys the only practical result of the office. It was also urged that the District Attorney idea would not harmonize with Oklahoma legal machin-

The joint bill by Mr. Hunter and others abolishing the game warden's department, and revising the game laws, was passed in the house by a vote of 70 to 11. The bill exempts bereferred after having been defeated tween thirty and forty counties, in which no hunting rule will apply as respects the killing of game or the requirement of licenses. It carries no penalty for fishing on Sunday. Mr. Hill of Pittsburg offered a substitute which sought to eliminate from the legislation all revision of the hunting code, but abolished the game warden's department. This was defeated. When the committee bill affecting the life of county superior courts came for final roll call Mr Farrell of Pottawatomie county offered a petition from citizens asking that the bill be referred for an amendment that would permit them to vote on that portion of the measure affecting them. The motion was voted down and the bill passed on final roll call by 81

House committees reported favorably the bill to repeal the tax ferret law and favorably the workmen's com pensation act by Mr. Hill of Pittsburg and Mr. Williams of Comanche. Both houses adopted a resolution recalling from the Governor's office the Hunter-McAlister bill, appropriating $10,000 for emergency quarantine work in the smallpox epidemic.

Speaker Maxey today received peti tions signed by nearly 1,000 socialists, chiefly in Johnston and Marshall coun ties, protesting against the bill and demanding that it be defeated. The bill will pass in the senate according to those informed on the subject.

The senate democratic caucus recorded itself on a congressional reapportionment bill that will make seven democratic districts and one republican district. It voted down the Roddie bill, calling for seven democratic districts and one congressman to be elected at large and referred the house bill, which meets with the caucus idea as to political complexion of the districts, to the standing committee for a report. The committee worked throughout the afternoon without making much headway.

Orders Texas Militia to Brownsville Today Ready for Instant Service Against Mexico.

Austin, Tex., Feb. 24.-Shortly before midnight tonight, acting upon representations made to him of the imminent danger of American citizens in Matamoros, Mexico, and in response to repeated appeals for aid from officials at Brownsville, Tex., Gov. Colquitt ordered to the border a company of infantry from Corpus Christi. The soldiers will leave on the first trains for Brownsville. There is already on duty at Brownsville the local company of Brownsville Rifles.

Adjt. Gen. Hutchings will accompany the Austin guardsmen and take command of the combined troops on nis arrival,

The first telegram received by the governor advising him of the situation at Brownsville were from Capt. Head, commander of the Brownsville Rifles, and are reported elsewhere in these dispatches.

Later, the Governor received the following telegram from Sheriff C. T. Ryan and County Judge E. H. Goodrich, at Brownsville: "Have just talked with the American Consul at Matamoros. Commanding officer there has demanded money of American citizens living in Matamoros. Threatens to

A second telegram from Capt. Head to the governor read as follows: "Have telephoned American Consul at Matamoros. He refuses to leave his the town over to looters if money is citizens come to Brownsville. Have strong guard on all river crossings."

The governor wired Sheriff Ryan: Telegram received. Called up Fort Sam Houston to inquire if the United States Government could give aid. Have not had definite answer. Have three troops of Texas cavalry waiting orders to move to your assistance as i soon as I am notified the United States army will not move. It will take two or three days to get troops to Browns ville. Have Capt. Head recruit his company and aid him all in your power to give protection to Americans in Matamoros. Keep me advised."

Gov. Colquitt late tonight sent the following telegram to Capt. Head: Have ordered Gen. Hutchings to order infantry and cavalry from Houston, infantry company from Corpus Christi and cavalry troop from Austin to Brownsville at once on special train. Notify Mexican commander at Matamoros who demands money that if he barms a single Texan his life will be demanded as a forfeit."

CONGRESS APRIL 1

The bill providing for a fixed tax for the maintenance of the state schools, as recommended by State Supt. Wilson, is the best solution of this troublesome question that has been offered. If it is adopted it will 'log rolling" in the legislature, and it.-Chickasha Express.

The inauguration of President Wilson is just one week off. Meantime the office seekers are headed for Washington to give him a hearty welcome when he arrives. When some of them leave, however, they will be singing a different tune, and the names they will call Wilson will have ittle resemblance to those they are calling him now.

Gov. Colquitt of Texas is taking active measures to protect the border from the Mexicans. Uncle Sam says the Texans must not cross the river, but if the Mexicans get to fresh it will but if the Mexicans get too fresh it will them on the Texas side. Those Texans living along the border have many old scores to pay off, and they are part of the fighting. Furthermore, if any one thinks Colquitt is bluffing he amusing it would be to see a knocker has another think coming. He knows hammering at the head of a man the gravity of the situation and is taking steps to head off trouble in am- him at the same time. It would be a ple time.

The house is likely to take up at any time the bill appropriating money for the state schools, and Ada will soon know where she stands. It is not thought that the house will kill any of the schools, nor is much danger apprehended in the senate, but there is no way of knowing how the governor will dispose of the bill. He has the power to veto any item in it, and the real tug of war may come in passing it over his veto. The minority report of the house committee submitted by Representative Morris of Duncan, would wipe out several schools, but would leave Ada normal. This is the first time any man proposing to abolish a state school did not head the list with Ada. In conversation with a citizen of Ada a day or two ago Mr. Morris sail he had talked with many people and the great majority favored leaving this school as its location is better than some others.

President-elect Wilson has ceased the pain of the nation regarding a special session of congress, but shows no disposition to relieve the burning curiosity concerning the personnel of his cabinet.

From this distance it appears that the legislature will either have to spend some time at the capital on the $2 per day rate of salary or else the governor forced to call a special session entitling the members to another 30 days with full pay.

People are beginning to complain about being bothered by their neighbors' chickens, from which it is inferred that gardening time is rapidly coming around. Under the city ordinance, a man has the right to wring go a long way toward eliminating the neck of every chicken found on his place, and after the chicken is that is a strong argument in favor of dead, why, of course, it would be the height of folly to throw it away. A stew comes in mighty nice.

SHAWNEE CONTESTS COUNTY SEAT ELECTION

Oklahoma City, Feb. 25.-The fight between Shawnee and Tecumseh for the county seat of Pottawatomie county reached the supreme court Monday in an application filed by Shawnee to have the court set aside the proclamation of the governor designating Tecumseh the seat of county govern-

It is alleged that all sorts of illegal tactics were pursued by Tecumseh before and at the time of the election. which resulted in favor of the latter city. It is claimed that a fund of $20,-000 was raised in the city of Tecumseh which was used for the purpose of bribing and corrupting voters. It is claimed that at least $15,000 was unlawfully taken from the city treasury of Tecumseh.

Julius Krouch, state committeeman of the Democratic party, is also alleged to have used the power of his position to work for Tecumseh and to intimidate and influence persons who were candidates for the postoffice the serving of that piece of federal pie said to be in his hands. It is further claimed that Tecumseh is more than six miles from the geographical center of the county as it now stands. The face of the returns show that in the election Shawnee received 4,061 votes. Tecumseh 2,860 votes and that there were 54 mutilated ballots. It is claimed that of these 54 mutilated votes 46 were for Shawnee. It is claimed that this and other irregularities would give Shawnee 4,-69, Tecumseh less than 2000 and as Tecumseh is not the geographical center of the county, should place the victory with Shawnee.

Ada is to have a genuine treat through the efforts of Mr. Ed Ward, manager of the Majestic theatre. The Majestic has procured a three days engagement beginning Thursday, this week, of Chiquita, the diminutive bit of humanity, known everywhere as the smallest perfectly formed human being ever born to arrive at the age of maturity. This is not a moving picture, but the little lady herself, the engagement costing the Majestic an immense sum of money. The little lady is thirty-five years of age, is 28 inches high and weighs about 30 lbs. She is very bright and intelligent and speaks several languages. In addition to being abnormally small Chiquita is of very attractive personal appearance and perfectly proportioned in face and figure. She is one of the sweetest singers and dances a dainty Spanish dance with ease and grace. It is seldom that Chiquita can be procured for a town the size of Ada, as her services are in constant demand in the larger cities. Opportunities present themselves in this form, once in a lifetime, so do not fail to see

How a Girl Should Fix Her Hair

Iu the March Woman's Home Companion, Grace Margaret Gould, fashion editor of that periodical, writes Clothes," Following is an extract which presents Miss Gould's ideas about hair dressing for young girls: "In arranging your hair, I would bear first in mind, if I were you not to hide the shape of your head. You may admire the way your older sister or your best friend's mother wears her hair, but don't try to copy it. The more simply you fix your hair, the more becoming it is sure to be. Parting the hair either in the middle or at the side is very pretty if it happens to be becoming to you, but if it is not, the soft wavy pompadour worn without a rat is in quite as good style. The hair which is drawn back Wright, both young men aged, about from the forebead in a low pompadour and continues back over the crown of the head, where it is then made into a little coil covered by a big bow, is very effective, only it must oners were brought to this city and not have the effect of all bow and little head. The bow should be small The eldest of the two confessed to enough to show two cunning little curls below it."

INDIVIDUAL ARTISTIC TOUCH COUNTS FOR MUCH THERE.

While There Are Some Absolutely Fixed Rules for the Placing of the Service, Arrangement Is Largely Matter of Taste.

Everyone may not learn to set a table artistically, but there are few who cannot learn to set it much better than they do. It is called art by some, and as such should be recognized by everyone.

It is not so much what is put on the table in the form of dishes, linen and service, as how it is done. Unusual, faddish setting of the table should be avoided for the everyday or holiday meal, unless it would be for such

There is no place in the entire home which can show the individual artistic touch of mother or daughter as the table, and there are some absolutely fixed rules for the placing of most of

In the first place, linens should be spotless and white and as fine as your style of living will warrant, the simpler ones for everyday use and the finer ones for special occasion.

They may be all this, but if not perfectly washed and ironed, the corners of the cloth folded perfectly, even the very foundation of the table setting will be a failure.

Table decorations should not be too elaborate, and always in keeping with the character of the day celebrated or the desired color scheme used, vrites Alice G. Kirk in the Cleveland Leader. Thanksgiving day colors are usually yellow to correspond with the pumpkin and chrysanthemum, which is the usual flower of the day.

Bredee-South African Dish.

Material required: Two pounds neck of mutton, one pint strained tomato, two medium-sized onions, onehalf sweet red pepper finely shredded, six tablespoons bacon fat, salt and pepper.

Method of preparing: Cut the meat in small pieces, discarding the fat; roll the pieces of meat in flour. Slice the onions and fry in the bacon fat until a golden brown. Take out the onions and brown the meat in the same fat. Add the tomato, shredded pepper, onion, one-half teaspoonful of salt and one-quarter teaspoonful of pepper. Pour into a casserole or baking dish; cover closely; cook two hours in a moderate oven. This can be made from cold roast mutton, and if so made it will require but an hour

Method of preparing: Cook beans until soft. Drain. Melt the batter, fry in it the carrot, onion and apple: add the flour and curry powder, blend well, then add water and beans; simmer fifteen minutes. Serve in a border of boiled rice.

Serving Tartar Sauce.

A delightful way to serve tartar sauce is to cut a lemon in half, clean out the inside thoroughly and then fill the halves with the sauce. One is served to each guest. When fish is served the little lemon cups are placed around the edge of the platter and one served to each guest. By this method the sauce remains firm instead of melting into a liquid when put into a warm plate.- Washington

Massachusetts will be the most conspicuous absentees from the Senate when the curtain rises on the extra session. Cullom was defeated in the primaries and Crane declined to be a candidate for re-election. Bailey of Texas has already withdrawn and Wetmore of Rhode Island, Guggenheim of Colorado, Burnham of New Hampshire, Briggs of New Jersey, Brown of Nebraska, Gardner of Maine Paynter of Kentucky, Curtis of Kansas, Richardson of Delaware and in the United States District court in Bourne of Oregon will step out at the end of the present congress.

In the new congress Democratic senators will succeed Republicans as chairmen of all the important committees of the senate. The prestige of the Democratic party and the fate of the Wilson administration will turn largely on the use the Democratic senators make of their new power. Whatever else may result, it is certain that the retirement of so many of the old leaders will have the effect of bringing to the front a number of senators who have heretofore been kept in the background, principally be cause they were on the minority side.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 25.-After spending an amount estimated at $20,000 and carrying his case to the Supreme Court of the United States in a vain effort to have the indictments against him dismissed, Jack Johnson, the negro champion pugilist, was arraigned this city today to stand trial 'on charges of violating the Mann whiteslave act.

Johnson's troubles originated in his open defiance of public sentiment following the death of his wife, a white woman, who committed suicide last summer. Within a few days after the burial of his wife the negro was reported to have lavished her diamonds and other jewelry on Lucille Cameron, a white girl, whose mother came from Minnesota and made futile efforts in and out of court to end her daughter's intimacy with the pugil-

The action of the negro in marrying the Cameron girl in open defiance of the pleadings of her mother aroused public sentiment in Chicago to a high pitch. Johnson's cafe license was revoked by the authorities and officers of the department of justice immediately took steps to prosecute the negro for alleged violations of the white slave law. Johnson's marriage is not expected to weaken the case of the government, since it is understood that the charges are based upon the negro's alleged relations with Belle Schrieber, a white woman, whom he is charged with having brought from Pittsburg to Chicago. It is understood that the Schrieber woman will be one of the principal witnesses for the prosecution.

"This Is My 47th Birthday"-Edwin Gould.

Edwin Gould, second son of the late Jay Gould, the "wizard of finance," was born at the famil yhome in New York City, February 25, 1866. His education was received principally in private schools, supplemented by a tour of Europe. Since he attained his majority Mr. Gould, emulating the example of his elder brother, George J. Gould, has devoted himself assiduously to the care and development of great railroad, financial and industrial properties, many of which had been controlled by his father. He has served as president of the St. Louis Southwestern Railway Company and as a director and one of the controlling factors in the Diamond Match Company, the Western Union Telegraph Company and many other large corporations. In 1892 Mr. Gould was married to Miss Sarah Shrady of New York. The couple have two sons, Edwin Gould, Jr., and Frank H. Gould.
